

Roots Giveaway!

BGCI is giving away back copies of ROOTS magazine free of charge to members. Although some are out of stock, we still have a wide range of issues available. Please check the list of copies and their contents below to identify which numbers will be of interest to you. You can request as many copies of each issue as you would like. However, postage will need to be paid. Please contact Sue Malin at sue.malin@bgci.org to arrange charges.

Copies of Roots in Stock

Roots 2:2 Master Planning for Education, papers include Interpretive Master Planning; The Evolution Garden; An Interdisciplinary Approach To Planning;, Evaluation and Planning for the 'Schools in the Forest' Education Programme;

Roots 27: Teaching Ecological Concepts papers include Deep Ecological Thinking; Sharing The Joy Of Nature; Teaching Ecological Concepts;

Roots 26: Planting for Education papers include Anarchy Or Order; Planting For Education; Jewels Of The Caribbean; Getting The Message Across; Designing And Developing Children's Gardens;

Roots 25: Networking and Partnerships papers include Forming Partnerships: Insights From Southern Africa; Making Biodiversity Conservation More Effective; Connections With The Community: Spreading The Impact

Roots 23: Sustainability for the Future papers include The Importance Of Community Involvement In Conservation; Los Jardineros Del Futuro ; Games And Festivals As A Way To Engage School Children; Nuevas Enfoques Para La Alimentacion: La Experiencia Del Eco-Restoran;

Roots 22: Environmental Ethics papers include Biodiversity, human rights and sustainability; Towards a community environmental ethic; Ethics; A voice of Culture;

Roots 20 4th International Congress on Education in Botanic Gardens July 2000 papers include Teacher Capacity Building: Skills Development Through Environmental Education ; School In The Forest – Educating The Young At The Gurukula Botanical Society;

Roots 19: Ethnobotany papers include: Ethnobotany from a native American perspective; Ethnobotanical education beyond the garden; Plants intertwined with culture; Desert keepsakes activity; Seeking partnerships to teach biodiversity.

Roots 18: Public and Adult Education papers include: Ecotourism – Fad Or Future For Tourism; In Bioparque: Learning While Recreating; More Than A Walk In The Park?;

Roots 17: Education for Sustainability papers include: Education For Sustainability; Nuestra Selva, Nuestra Cultura, Nuestra Vida; Wetland Biodiversity, A Message To Take Home.

Roots 16: Focus on Africa papers include: Thoughts On Food Security; Biodiversity Education For All; Making The Most Of Traditional Festival Days; Le Jardin Botanique Du Hamma.

Roots 14: Habitats papers include: Todos Los Ecosistemas En Un Solo Jardin; Wildlife In Paris; Science Exploration Map; Sustainable Human Habitats In South Africa.

Roots 12: Mixed themes papers include: Voyage Aux Pays Des Epices; Alpine Links; Beating The Blockers; Plantas Cultivadas A Su Alcance; Using Your Senses In The Herb Garden.

Roots 11: Teacher Training papers include: Effective Teacher Training – It's All In The Planning; Whatever The Subject, There's A Place For Plants! Un Formulario Colombiano Para Tener Exito; Break The Ice; Public Gardens As Agents Of Teacher Change.

Roots 10: Exhibitions papers include: Making The Most Of Exhibitions; Interactive Exhibits; Planimals Invade; Building Display Panels – Instructions For Building Simple Exhibition Stands; Setting Up – A Guide To Exhibition Floor Plans, Layout And Lighting.

Roots 9: Outreach Programmes papers include: Green-up; Model solutions; Card Game; Kew on Wheels; Los estuches educativos portatiles; Juego de insectos; Grey to Green.