Acknowledgements

The wealth of the knowledge and quality of the guidance provided in this Manual would not have been possible without the expertise and contributions made by numerous botanic garden professionals from around the world – the extensive list of the chapter and case study authors speaks for itself. The critical expert views and recommendations offered by the members of the technical review committee have been immensely valuable during the final stages of the production of the manual. Various other specialists who shared their advice, supplied case study materials and illustrations, or in any other way contributed to and inspired the development of this manual include Michael Anlezark, Carlo Balistreri, Erin Bird, Stephen Blackmore, Belinda Gallagher, Mark Glicksman, Richard Griffin, Alex Henderson, Etelka Leadlay, Lydia Murphy, Mike O'Neal, Sara Oldfield, Havard Ostgaard, Kerry Walters and Garance Wood-Moulin. Revisions were provided by Paul Smith, Secretary General, Botanic Gardens Conservation International, in addition to reviews by other members of staff who assisted in the manual's development and completion, including Emily Beech, Yvette Harvey-Brown and Suzanne Sharrock. Their professional contributions and support, which have significantly facilitated the accuracy and coherence of this resource, are gratefully acknowledged.
