

17 & 18 April 2015
Friday & Saturday

#BGICW join us on twitter!
www.facebook.com/HortusBotanicus

+ Panel discussions,
poster sessions, walks,
boat tours and more!
*The content is subject to change

A two-day symposium

Hosted by:
Hortus botanicus Leiden

On the occasion of:
the 425th anniversary of the botanical garden

For:
managers, researchers and educators within the garden community

About (theme):
Science and education in the future and new developments in public approach

Language: English

Location:
Orangery (Hortus)
Visitors address Postal address
Rapenburg 73 P.O. Box 9500
2311 GJ Leiden 2300 RA Leiden
The Netherlands

Rates

1 Day	€95,00
2 Days (rec.)	€150,00
7-course walking dinner	€45,00

Enjoy a fresh taste experience and live music while you network
Prices do not include transportation
and/or accomodation

Register now: Click here

Call for papers:
before 5th of March

Keynote speakers

Prof. Dr. M. Weigend, Bonn, DE
Botanic gardens in a changing world

Prof. Dr. G. Casodoro, Padua, IT
The botanic garden of Padua, history and new science development

Dr. N. Wray, Bristol, UK
Bristol's New Botanic Garden: A Garden of Evolution for the 21st Century

Dr. S. Dessein, Meise, BE
New developments in science and public outreach in the Botanic garden Meise

Dr. D. Widyatmoko, Bogor, ID Establishing new botanic gardens in Indonesia, strategy and results

Paul Smith, UK
Botanic gardens: nice to have or essential for human survival?

Click here to read abstracts & find out who the moderator is!

Don't forget to book
your accommodation on time!
Special congress rates at:
- Fitland Leiden
- Ibis Leiden Centre
- Holiday Inn

+31 (0) 71 527 7249
hortus@hortus.leidenuniv.nl