

Donation Agreement for the Living Collections Cytundeb Rhodd ar gyfer y Casgliadau Byw

National Botanic Garden of Wales
Gardd Fotaneg Genedlaethol Cymru

The National Botanic Garden of Wales ('NBGW') is committed to the letter and spirit of the Convention on Biological Diversity (1992) and the associated Nagoya Protocol on Access to Genetic Resources and the Fair and Equitable Sharing of Benefits Arising from their Utilization (2010). As a botanic garden based in the United Kingdom, we also operate within the framework of Nagoya Protocol Compliance Regulations (2015).

NBGW will accept the donation of plant materials¹ for the living collections subject to the following conditions being met:

- I. The donor has acquired plant materials in a legal and responsible manner. All relevant supporting documents, such as mutual agreed terms and prior informed consent are also made available to NBGW.
- II. Appropriate precautions have been taken to ensure that accepted plant materials are pathogen free.
- iii. Donation of plant materials will not contravene any intellectual or commercial restrictions (e.g. Plant Breeders Rights)
- iv. The donor understands that NBGW reserves the right to manage accepted plant materials in accordance with their core missions and can dispose of plant materials, if necessary.

¹ For the purpose of this agreement, plant materials are defined as living plants, seeds, spores and their progeny and derivatives.
