

BOTANIC GARDEN

AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

Day

BOTANIC GARDENS CONSERVING PLANTS - OUR LIVES DEPEND ON IT

www.bganz.org.au

Free event

SUNDAY 27 MAY 10AM - 2PM

What's on at Wollongong Botanic Garden

FROM 10AM - 2PM:

Botanic Garden Information tent at Murphy's Ave entrance

Hands-on fun at the Discovery Centre with kitchen garden smoothies; seed bomb making; learn how to keep backyard chickens & make a recycled bird feeder; and make your own hanging kokedama string garden!

Interactive talk with Botanic Garden staff on local seed production and collection

General Garden Buggy Tours by The Friends of Wollongong Botanic Garden (every 45 mins), from the duck pond

Visit the Towri Centre where the Greenplan Nursery and The Friends of Wollongong Botanic Garden will have plants for sale, as well as botanical art cards made by the Friends.

10AM & 12PM Meet John Gabriele our local ambassador, presenter of ABC Illawarra's the Compost Heap radio show and teacher of horticulture!

INTERACTIVE TALKS & TOURS*

10.30AM Bush Tucker Garden
A Habitat Garden - Open forest & grassland & rainforest

11AM Behind the Scenes Nursery Tour

12PM Bush Tucker Garden
A Habitat Garden - Open forest & grassland & rainforest
Palm Garden

1PM Bush Tucker Garden
A Habitat Garden - Open forest & grassland & rainforest
Behind the Scenes Nursery Tour

Interactive talk & tours will run for approximately 40 minutes*

Note: This program was correct at publication, however, may be subject to change prior to the event. Please check our website www.wollongong.nsw.gov.au/botanicgarden and www.facebook.com/wollongongbotanicgarden for any changes to this program or for more information contact Wollongong Botanic Garden on 02 4227 7667 or botanicgarden@wollongong.nsw.gov.au

Bring a picnic and join in the fun!

#Botanicgardensday

Wollongong
Botanic Garden is a service of Wollongong
City Council

