Hosting the Global Botanic Gardens Congress

BGCI Guidelines for Botanic Gardens

This version: 13 July 2023

The Global Botanic Gardens Congress, normally held once every three years, is hosted by a BGCI member, with Congress activities centred around the host botanic garden or arboretum.

Where possible, BGCI aims to reflect a broad geographical spread of Congress locations to encourage participation from around the world.

The process for deciding the host of the 9th Global Botanic Garden Congress is described below:

1. Email expression of Interest submitted by interested botanic gardens or arboreta to the Secretary General of BGCI by 1 October 2023.
2. Pre-Proposal submitted by interested botanic gardens or arboreta to the Secretary General of BGCI by 31 December 2023.
3. Short-list of potential hosts developed by a sub-committee of BGCI’s International Advisory Council and submitted to the Secretary General of BGCI by 31 January 2024.
4. Secretary General of BGCI notifies short-listed candidates by 5 February 2024.
5. Full Proposal submitted by short-listed candidates to the Secretary General of BGCI by 30 May 2024.
6. BGCI’s International Advisory Council sub-committee reviews and recommends proposed host to the BGCI Board for approval on 30 June 2024.
7. BGCI announces host of 9th Global Botanic Garden Congress at event during the 8th Global Botanic Garden Congress in Singapore 6-10 August 2024.

Expression of Interest
Botanic gardens or arboreta interested in hosting an international Congress with Botanic Gardens Conservation International should email an Expression of Interest to the Secretary General, BGCI. The Expression of Interest should contain brief answers to the following questions:

1. Who are you? Describe the Botanic Garden or Arboretum.
2. Where will the congress be held?
3. Why would you like to host the congress?

Pre-Proposal and Shortlisting

All botanic gardens or arboreta that have submitted an expression of interest may submit a pre-proposal in the form of a presentation of no more than ten slides to address the following criteria:

- About the Finances
  - Commitment to underwrite the cost of the congress
  - Commitment to co-organise the congress with BGCI
  - Commitment to cover BGCI costs in congress Budget. For example:
    - Registration costs for up to 20 BGCI staff
    - Travel costs for up to five BGCI staff for the congress
    - Travel costs for 1-2 BGCI staff to travel to congress host for at least one planning meeting
  - Ability to provide discount to BGCI Members on registration fees of at least USD 150.
- About the Location
  - Geographic balance (why the location is optimal)
  - Accessibility and transport links of congress location
  - Affordability and value for money
  - Facilities offered to congress participants, including proximity to the congress venue(s) and the host institution garden or arboretum
  - Proximity and diversity (costs and quality) of accommodation
- About the Congress
  - Approximate timing for when the congress would be held
  - The capacity (number of delegates) of the congress venue
  - Capacity to publicise the congress
  - Suggested theme for the congress
  - Potential for field trips and additional programmes
  - Availability of translation services
  - Sustainability options, for example hybrid in person/online congress options, flight offsets etc.
- About the Host
  - Previous experience in hosting large meetings
  - Host language(s)
Potential links with other events and opportunities

The Pre-Proposal Presentation is an initial draft proposal, requiring limited research, and completed internally by the interested botanic garden or arboretum. The pre-proposal does not require any collaboration with external congress organisers, local authorities, or sponsors.

A sub-committee of the BGCI-International Advisory Council (IAC) will review the Pre-Proposal and provide a short-list of candidates to BGCI’s Board and Secretary General. Short-listed candidates will be invited to submit a final proposal to host the congress by BGCI.

The Proposal

Shortlisted botanic gardens or arboreta are invited to submit a full, formal proposal for consideration by the IAC who will make a recommendation to the BGCI Board. Criteria assessed by the IAC, and their relative weightings are outlined in Annex 1.

The Proposal should contain:

1. A Bid ‘Letter of Invitation’ addressed to the Secretary General, outlining what the host botanic garden and city have to offer.

2. Justification including the rationale for hosting the Congress, previous experience, specific expertise, theme of the Congress, special anniversary of the host institution, other reasons e.g. central location etc.

3. Background information such as accessibility of the location, airport, rail and bus services, geography, language, exchange rates, value for money, tourist attractions, security/health, environmental sustainability.

4. Timing of Congress
A recommendation should be made suggesting an appropriate date for the Congress taking into consideration climate, to enable delegates to travel at reasonable cost and to ensure good attendance.

5. Experience and capacity for administration of the Congress
See Guidelines Section 1 for further details below.

6. Conference venue, facilities and resources
See Guidelines Section 2 for further details below.

7. Accommodation
15-20 hotels should be listed with star ratings/charges/number of rooms/proximity to Conference venue. The host botanic garden should provide periodic shuttle services where needed, e.g. from main hotels to meeting centre or from one congress venue to another.

8. Social Events/Venues/Congress Tours
The following social events and tours are usually part of the GBGC package:
- Pre- and Post-Congress Tours are usually offered prior to and following the Congress.
- Mid-Congress tours (half or whole day) provide an opportunity for international meetings to take place, such as Regional Botanic Garden Meetings, BGCI International Advisory Council or BGCI Board Meetings.
- Welcome Reception – usually held the evening prior to the first day.
- Congress Banquet – usually held the evening prior to the last day.
- Other Social Events on related topics.

9. Estimated budget and financial model
See Guidelines Section 3 for further details, below.

10. Sustainability
How will the Congress ensure environmental sustainability, this should include options for virtual attendance as well as consideration of the sustainability aspects of catering, Congress materials, etc.

11. Promotion and publicity
How the Congress will be publicised, support from the municipal authorities, tourism authorities etc.

12. Letters of Support
For example, from prospective Congress Organisers, City Council/Tourist Bureau, National Parks Board noting Congresses previously organised.

Guidelines for Proposal

1. Administration and communication
Generally, both participating organisations (the host and BGCI) will foster collaboration through mutual respect; champion the partnership and any specific key messages and campaigns relating to 9GBGC; sharing relevant communication and information between parties and with members via social and other channels; create an effective support platform for best use of resources, avoiding duplication wherever possible. Host institutions must have institutional communication facilities including email, video conferencing, and telephone.
BGCI and the host institution will form three main coordinating groups to support the congress: the Project Steering Group, the Scientific Committee, and the Organising Committee.

The host institution will appoint a Congress Coordinator(s) with well developed organisational and communication skills to liaise with BGCI. Additionally (or alternatively), BGCI expects the host garden to appoint/hire professional Congress Organisers to support the planning, administration, and organisation of the congress.

Roles and Responsibilities for the three main coordinating groups and coordinator(s) are as follows:

Congress Steering Group
Oversight and key decision-making, including finalisation of overarching congress theme and main conference streams, identify and secure keynote speakers. The Congress Steering Group will include appointed staff from BGCI and the host institution and will report to the IAC.

The Scientific Committee
The Scientific Committee will be appointed by BGCI and the host garden to include representation from the host garden, BGCI staff and international experts. The Scientific Committee will report to the Congress Steering Group. The Terms of Reference for the Scientific Committee are as follows:

- Providing suggestions for keynote speakers
- Reviewing abstracts with a focus on particular Congress themes of interest/expertise
- Promoting the Congress and encouraging potential speakers / symposium organisers to submit proposals / abstracts
- Follow-up and coordination with congress organisers
- Assisting with the development of the scientific programme of the Congress, - ensuring a good thematic, geographical and gender representation amongst the speakers

The Organising Committee
The Organising Committee will include the host institution, the Congress Coordinator, and the professional Congress Organiser. The Organising Committee will report to the Congress Steering Group. The Terms of Reference for the Organising Committee are as follows:

- Providing support and guidance to the administration and organising of the congress including:
  - Accommodation, venue, audio-visual, catering, social programme(s), pre/post-congress tour(s), sponsorship, congress website, marketing, communications, development of program information (digital and printed), and delegate registrations and communications.
- Follow-up and coordination with Congress Organiser(s) and Congress Coordinator(s)
Congress Coordinator(s)
The role of the coordinator(s) will be to work with BGCI staff to:

- Liaise with Congress Organiser(s) and Congress Steering Group
- Canvas ideas and develop congress themes
- Develop a Congress schedule
- Develop, produce and distribute the congress circular(s)
- Invite Keynote Speakers to address congress themes
- Correspond with delegates
- Compile the registration booklet
- Liaise with caterers/venue/hotel managers
- Arrange transportation for delegates during congress
- Raise sponsorship to support congress.

2. Facilities and Resources

Minimum facilities and resources required by the botanic garden to host the Congress should include:

- Auditorium with capacity of up to 500 people
- Lecture rooms (~10) to accommodate approx. 20-30 people
- 1 large area for poster sessions - poster stands/easels or other methods to mount posters required
- Other meeting venues with a note of capacity
- Translation facilities – the primary language for the congress is English, but sessions in other languages are permitted as long as translation into English is available
- Audio/visual technology and support for all Auditorium and Lecture rooms
- Access to free wireless internet for conference participants
- BGCI administration office to be available throughout the Congress – access to photocopier requested
- Where possible A4 floor plans to be made available
- Options for virtual congress attendance

Information on proximity of hotels and Congress venues to the botanic garden should be provided.

3. Funding and financial planning

A draft budget should be submitted with the Proposal. The host botanic garden will be expected to:

- Underwrite the cost of the Congress and cover any financial shortfall;
- Seek and attract sponsorship for the Congress.

The Congress Budget should include:
3.1. Sources of Income

3.2.5. Social costs

• Welcome reception
• Congress dinner
• Congress tours
• Other events

3.2.6. Profits made from the Congress shall be divided equally between BGCI and the host botanic garden.

4. Memorandum of Understanding

A Memorandum will be drawn up and signed detailing responsibilities of BGCI and of the host garden.

5. Announcement of following Congress Venue and Host
Normally BGCI aims to announce the successful bid (with prospective dates) for hosting the next Congress at the end of the out-going Congress. BGCI will post this information on its website and in relevant BGCI publications.

6. Promotion and publicity

The host botanic garden is expected to seek regional and national/international press coverage. The Congress will be profiled on the BGCI website and in relevant BGCI publications. BGCI and principal sponsors should be acknowledged in Congress promotion materials and publicity.
